Video distribution benefits for artists

Video distribution gives your music videos the oomph they need to be seen around the globe. By getting your videos on leading streaming platforms like Apple Music and TIDAL, you're opening the door to increased visibility and new opportunities.

Music video distribution also boosts your SEO, increasing the likelihood of your videos appearing in search engine results. It also improves your chances of being featured on popular playlists to reach new audiences. The result? More streams, more sales and elevated growth for your music career.

Using an online video distribution platform like Horus Music helps you make a name for yourself in the industry and build lasting connections with fans across the globe.

Frequently Asked Questions

How long does video distribution take?

We deal with all music and video release submissions as soon as possible. Most releases are processed and sent out to stores within 24 hours from date of submission.

Please note if you don't have a VEVO channel yet, it can take up to two weeks to create a new one. So please get in touch at least four weeks before your first VEVO video release.

Music videos for Apple and iTunes can take longer than other DSPs due to strict review process all videos must undergo before being accepted by the platform.
